Natural avalanche in wind-loaded snow near Mt Bole, Hyalite

Hyalite - main fork Northern Gallatin 1/30/2020 Code SS-N-R2-D2-I Aspect SE Latitude 45.44720 Longitude -110.96200

From an observation: "We were up on the ridge off Palace Butte and saw this recent natural released $\underline{\text{slide}}$. Crown was big in spots. Must have happened sometime over night or in the morning (1/29 or 1/30) perhaps from the recent wind loading. East, southeast facing, on the peak north of MT Bole."
