

This slide and one other occurred on a NE aspect of Mt Henderson above the Fisher Creek near Cooke City. Notice the ski pole to gauge depth of the avalanche. These slides broke over 3 feet deep on weak facets near the ground. One slide was 300 feet wide and the other was about 100 feet wide. At least one was human triggered.
Photo: B. Fredlund

Advisory Region
Cooke City
Longitude
-109.94W
Latitude
45.05N

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Advisory for Sun Nov 24, 2013
Cooke City, 2013-11-23